DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 21 and 22 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 and 11 of U.S. Patent No. US 6,735,445 B2. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the reference US 6,735,445 B2 (10/772, 980) refers to a unit generating a frame, while the current application discloses "a frame" as a "portion including data". The method and system both disclose the concept of generating by the first unit a frame including data indicating the unit is establishing a direct communication channel with the second unit, and a second portion including data for the second unit; transmitting the first portion to the second unit and the at least one further wireless unit; and establishing the direct communication channel between the first and second units to transmit the second portion, the first portion directing the at least one further unit to abstain from communication using the direct communication channel during transmission of the second portion.

Art Unit: 2618
